

FIBRE BOX ASSOCIATION

Biography
Dennis J. Colley
President/CEO
Fibre Box Association (FBA)

Dennis Colley is President/CEO of the Fibre Box Association (FBA), a non-profit trade association representing North American manufacturers of corrugated packaging. In this role, Colley leads the organization in supporting the corrugated industry through data sharing, issues management and communications.

Colley also serves as Executive Director of the Corrugated Packaging Alliance (CPA). CPA is a corrugated industry initiative, jointly sponsored by the American Forest & Paper Association (AF&PA), The Independent Packaging Association (AICC), Fibre Box Association (FBA) and The Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry (TAPPI).

In December, 2016, Colley was appointed President of the International Corrugated Case Association (ICCA).

Founded in 1961, ICCA is a non-profit global association of national or regional trade associations representing corrugated box manufacturers. The association also includes individual company members as leadership members.

Prior to his position at FBA, Colley spent 35 years at International Paper where he held management positions in mill operations, converting operations, global containerboard and supply chain. Colley previously served the industry as a member of the American Forest & Paper Association's Containerboard Sector Board and co-chair of the Corrugated Packaging Alliance (CPA).

Colley is a graduate of the University of Alabama. He currently serves on the Boards of the International Corrugated Case Association (ICCA), and the International Corrugated Packaging Foundation (ICPF). He and his wife Elaine have been married since 1974 and together they have five children and five grandchildren.
